✓ 17. (Unclassified - MMP) LIAISON Mike O'Neil, Chief Counsel, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, called asking for Agency assistance in making up display boards for the Committee to use in preliminary hearings for the foreign electronic surveillance legislation (H. R. 7308). After checking with various individuals involved with graphics, I told Mike in order to meet his deadline of Wednesday, 12 April at 0900 hours, we would have to work overtime and that the cost to us for the graphics would be roughly seventy dollars apiece for each of the ten boards that he wanted. Further, I suggested to Mike that display boards containing nothing but the words provided on foolscap typed pages might not be a very good technique. Despite the negative sound of the foregoing, I believe that Mike appreciated that I was trying to be helpful. The outcome was that he thanked us for the rapid response and asked me to forget the request.

20. (Unclassified - SF) LIAISON Received a call from Ellen Miller, on the staff of the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee. Ms. Miller was calling to speak to [redacted] of our office, and in his absence spoke to me. She said she had requested an unclassified briefing about ten days ago on patron state support for terrorism for herself, Brian Conboy, Special Counsel, of the Committee, and Winslow Wheeler, in the office of Senator Jacob Javits (R., N. Y.) and that she hadn't heard anything. Subsequently, I contacted [redacted] and relayed 25X1 the above to him, he in turn explained (as he had already done on two other occasions when speaking to Ms. Miller) that Ms. Miller does not have a security clearance and that so far we have not been able to arrange an unclassified briefing on the subject that she is interested in. After relaying the above to Ms. Miller, she said she does not want to be put off because she doesn't have a security clearance, while overseas she received extensive unclassified briefings without a clearance, etc., and asked for [redacted] of our office. I relayed all of the above to [redacted] prior to his telephone call to her. 25X1 25X1
